

Friends plan Hittner benefit

OTTUMWA — This Saturday seven bands and 12 sponsors will present a benefit concert for Robbin Hittner, an Ottumwan who is battling breast cancer.

From 6:30 p.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday, Hittner's friends and family will gather at Harley's Place, Highway 34 East (Roemer Avenue) to show support for Hittner and her family.

Hittner was diagnosed with cancer in August.

"Knowing the extreme costs, both financially and emotionally, such an illness can put on a family, the friends of the Hittner family have decided to help out the best way we know how," said John Paul Jones of Ottumwa.

Jones' band, John Paul Jones Group, will play from 11:30 p.m. Saturday to 12:30 a.m. Sunday.

Also playing will be Pornivore, 6:30-7 p.m.; Less than Zero, 7:15-7:45 p.m.; Group Effort, 8-8:45 p.m.; Matthew Clay, 9-9:30 p.m.; and Average Joe, 9:45-10:45 p.m.

There will be a raffle and door prizes from 11-11:30 p.m.
